Choice 1: AVID Schoolwide Workshop: Executive Functioning and the Middle School Student Gregory Rowland, AVID Elective Teacher at DMS Room 116	Does your student have trouble starting or finishing schoolwork? Does your student seem to be disorganized or lose school papers? We will examine a few AVID strategies to help with executive functioning. We will equip you with helpful questions to ask your students when they seem stuck with schoolwork.
Choice 2: Tech Tips: How to help your child navigate their device safely. Steve Russell, Co-Tech Liaison at DMS Room 118	Are you concerned about how much access your children have with their device? Would you like to help them without helicoptering? We will discuss some helpful tips for students to use their device safely and purposefully.
Choice 3: Schoology and the Calming Strategy Toolbox Mr. Zuckerman, DMS SEL Teacher and Special Educator Library	Do you feel lost when you look at your child's Schoology page? Are there times when your child tells you that they are up to date on all their assignments, but you have your doubts? Are you aware of BCPS' initiative to teach students and parents about Social Emotional Learning? Would your child benefit from learning strategies to better handle stress and anger? If you answered yes to any of these questions, then join Mr. Zuckerman's crash course on Schoology and the Calming Strategy Toolbox.
